Maitreya's famous Mahāyānasūtrāṅkāra with Do Tulku Rinpoche Online Teachings (7.-9. May 2021)

We feel very honored and happy that Do Tulku Rinpoche - a wonderful teacher and translator - has accepted our request to teach on this very rich and practical text by Buddha Maitreya, entitled “Mahāyānasūtrāṅkāra” (The Ornament of Mahāyāna Sūtrās). Since this treatise is a general commentary on the Mahāyāna Sūtrās, we will gain a very comprehensive understanding of the authenticity and the essence of the entire Mahāyāna journey and its result. With his very clear, humorous and interactive style, Rinpoche will lead us through this precious and celebrated treatise verse by verse.

Dates: The course starts 7th May 2021 and is consisting of two to three weekends per year. The schedule of this first weekend is: 7th May (7 pm), 8th May (11:15 am & 3pm), 9th May (11:15 am). Each session will last for around 2 hours, the time given is CEST (e.g. Berlin).

Language: english only

Zoom: The zoom link will be provided on donation base (please use the subject “India”) to Paypal. Please also share your email address to receive the zoom link! The entire donation will be sent to India for Covid relief, to individuals who are distributing food & medicine to those in need.
